SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

- YEAR B

06TH DECEMBER 2020

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

O people of Sion, behold,
the Lord will come to save the nations,
and the Lord will make the glory of his voice heard
in the joy of your heart.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Is 40: 1-5. 9-11

'Console my people, console them' says your God.
'Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and call to her that her time of service is ended, that her sin is atoned for,
that she has received from the hand of the Lord
double punishment for all her crimes.'

A voice cries, 'Prepare in the wilderness a way for the Lord.
Make a straight highway for our God across the desert.
Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill be laid low, let every cliff become a plain, and the ridges a valley;
then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all mankind shall see it; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.'

Go up on a high mountain, joyful messenger to Zion. Shout with a loud voice, joyful messenger to Jerusalem. Shout without fear, say to the towns of Judah,
'Here is your God.' Here is the Lord coming with power, his arm subduing all things to him. The prize of his victory is with him, his trophies all go before him.
He is like a shepherd feeding his flock,
gathering lambs in his arms,
holding them against his breast
and leading to their rest the mother ewes.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Response: Lord, let us see your kindness,
and grant us your salvation.

1. I will hear what the Lord God has to say,
a voice that speaks of peace,
peace for his people.
His help is near for those who fear him
and his glory will dwell in our land. (R.)
2. Mercy and faithfulness have met;
justice and peace have embraced.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth
and justice look down from heaven. (R.)
3. The Lord will make us prosper
and our earth shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall march before him
and peace shall follow his steps. (R.)

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of St Peter

2 Pt 3: 8-14

There is one thing, my friends, that you must never forget:
that with the Lord, 'a day' can mean a thousand years, and a thousand years is like a day. The Lord is not being slow to carry out his promises, as anybody else might be called slow; but he is being patient with you all, wanting nobody to be lost and everybody to be brought to change his ways. The Day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then with a roar
the sky will vanish, the elements will catch fire and fall apart, the earth and all that it contains will be burnt up.

Since everything is coming to an end like this, you should be living holy and saintly lives while you wait and long for the Day of God to come, when the sky will dissolve in flames and the elements melt in the heat. What we are waiting for is what he promised: the new heavens and new earth, the place where righteousness will be at home. So then, my friends, while you are waiting, do your best to live lives without spot or stain so that he will find you at peace.

This is the word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight his paths:

all people shall see the salvation of God.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Mk 1: 1-8

The beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah:

Look, I am going to send my messenger before you;
he will prepare your way.

A voice cries in the wilderness:

Prepare a way for the Lord,
make his paths straight,

and so it was that John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. All Judaea and all the people of Jerusalem made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. John wore a garment of camel-skin, and he lived on locusts and wild honey. In the course of his preaching he said, 'Someone is following me, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to kneel down and undo the strap of his sandals. I have baptised you with water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.'

REFLECTION

Two Gospels

John immersed, baptised, his followers in water, symbolising the washing away of the sins of the past. But he could not empower people by drenching them in the dynamic life of God. John anticipates 'Someone' (not named!) who does have the power to inundate, baptise, people with the Holy Spirit.

From the heading of St Mark's Gospel, we know that that 'Someone' is 'Jesus Christ, Son of God' who came to flood our lives with that Divine Power which can effect a completely new future for humanity.

That is why St Mark took the term 'gospel' (good news) which was used on inscriptions announcing an Emperor's birth or victory, and used it to describe his inspired rendering of the mission of Jesus Christ, which was to inaugurate the 'Kingdom of God', overcoming the pretensions of all Emperors of any kind throughout history.

We could pause for a moment to thank God for the Good News of our being baptised with water in the 'Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.'

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.

I love you above all things and desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Youth + Corner

The Most Important Book in History

During this month's youth group, Ryan and I provided the youth with an introduction into the Holy Bible. Through our research, it became evident that the Holy Bible is truly the most influential and important book in human history. Our Old Testament originated thousands of years ago and is the religious text used by the Jews both in the past and present. The first five books in the Old Testament are Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy and are known as the Torah (Hebrew) or the Pentateuch (Greek). Believed to be written by Moses himself, the first book Genesis details the creation of all things and the special relationship God has established with mankind himself. We then move on to the patriarchs of the Bible, Abraham, his son Isaac and his son Jacob, also named Israel, the ancestor of the Israelites. Later on, we see Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt to the promised land but also witness the defiance and rebellious nature of the Israelites against God, allowing us to reflect on the sinful nature of humanity itself.

As you move on through the Old Testament, you encounter the prophets. Individuals like Ezekiel, Daniel and Esther, who together tell the story of Israel's second freedom from captivity and return to Jerusalem. Interspersed here in the Bible is Psalms and Proverbs, which are hymns, songs, and sayings which praise and glorify God. You'll probably hear one today during mass! However, for Catholics today, one of the most important aspects of the Old Testament is the promise and foretelling of a saviour, a Messiah.

The New Testament is the fulfilment of this promise! The Gospels tell us about the story of Jesus and his ministry on Earth. He would be a descendent of David (as Joseph was descended from this lineage) and came down to proclaim the Good News of God's kingdom to Israel. The books after the Gospel detail the letters and journeys disciples such as St Paul encountered, with the goal of preaching the divine grace of Jesus and the beauty of faith and trust in God. These books also warn us of false prophets and sin, reminding Christians both past and present to remain steadfast in their faith and devotion to Christ.

The Book of Revelations rounds off the Bible, and it tells of the future of the Church, and of humanity, and prophesies about the spiritual journey we take and our ongoing struggle between good and evil. It is one of the most difficult books in the Bible to interpret and understand but forms the foundation for some of our most fundamental beliefs.

We also covered Biblical translations over the centuries, with the Vulgate (Latin translation/'gold standard') in the Catholic Church dating back to the 4th century AD. However, what matters is your hunger to learn more about Christ through scripture. As St Jerome, the author of the Vulgate once said, 'Ignorance of the scriptures is ignorance of Christ'. Let us all heed his advice.
