

St. Monica's Parish

North Parramatta

"Our mission is to build up an active parish community with the Eucharist as the centre, foster deeper prayer and spirituality and reach out as a witnessing community"

4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT – YEAR A 21ST DECEMBER 2025

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Drop down dew from above, you heavens, and let the clouds rain down the Just One; let the earth be opened and bring forth a Saviour.

FIRST READING

Is 7 : 10 - 14

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord spoke to Ahaz and said, 'Ask the Lord your God for a sign for yourself coming either from the depths of Sheol or from the heights above.' 'No', Ahaz answered 'I will not put the Lord to the test.'

Then Isaiah said: 'Listen now, House of David: are you not satisfied with trying the patience of men without trying the patience of my God, too? The Lord himself, therefore, will give you a sign. It is this: the maiden is with child and will soon give birth to a son whom she will call Immanuel, a name which means "God-is-with-us".' The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 23

Response: Let the Lord enter, he is king of glory.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples. It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm. (R.)
2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in his holy place? The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things. (R.)
3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him. Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R.)

SECOND READING

Rom 1 : 1 – 7

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus who has been called to be an apostle, and specially chosen to preach the Good News that God promised long ago through his prophets in the scriptures.

This news is about the Son of God, who, according to the human nature he took, was a descendant of David: it is about Jesus Christ our Lord who, in the order of the spirit, the spirit of holiness that was in him, was proclaimed Son of God in all his power through his resurrection from the dead. Through him we received grace and our apostolic mission to preach the obedience of faith to all pagan nations in honour of his name. You are one of these nations, and by his call belong to Jesus Christ. To you all, then, who are God's beloved in Rome, called to be saints, may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send grace and peace.

The word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

A virgin will give birth to a son; his name will be Emmanuel: God is with us. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mt 1 : 18 - 24

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a man of honour and wanting to spare her publicity, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel, a name which means 'God-is-with-us'.

When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord had told him to do: he took his wife to his home

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMENTARY

Just Man Dreaming

John was languishing in prison, held captive by the local agent of the Roman Empire. Perhaps he was looking for evidence that Jesus was the One who would throw off Roman despotism. In answer to his questing, Jesus replied that John should rather look at what was happening on the ground in His healing ministry and orientation to the poor. Those are the signs that the reign of God has begun.

I admire John the Baptist because he was prepared to seek and accept the answer to the question which was crucial to him, even though the answer might upset his preconceptions. He was a true seeker after Truth.

All our activities as a parish in building community, forming faith, serving the poor, participating in the liturgy, should be undertaken so that a seeker after Truth might see and hear the evidence of the presence and mission of the risen Lord Jesus Christ amongst us.

We could pause for a moment to simply pray in the spirit of Advent: 'Come, Lord Jesus' to satisfy the restlessness of the questing heart

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen

Scripture- Matthew 11:2-11

Observation: In this week's gospel reading, John the Baptist's disciples are trying to work out Jesus' identity and specifically want to find out if He is the promised Messiah. Jesus affirms that He is the promised Messiah as He can liberate people from their ailments, such as physical ailments and promises to bring new, eternal life to the dead. Jesus' mission is to bring hope to the suffering, sick and vulnerable. As the first reading from Isaiah points out, the Messiah's mission is to bring salvific hope to people and strengthen their sense of resolve and give them inner, spiritual strength. The physical ailments that Jesus says He will heal, such as deafness and being crippled, may also be interpreted metaphorically. Jesus comes to not only heal physical infirmities but also spiritual infirmities. Jesus also says that as the Messiah, He does not come with the trappings and appearances of earthly power, wealth and authority, such as fine clothing but comes with the authority of God in heaven.

Application: At many stages in our lives, we may be crippled by spiritual, mental and emotional ailments. We may feel anxious, depressed, pessimistic, experience doubts about our faith in God or become more lukewarm in our faith, and we may lack enthusiasm or motivation to help others. Our internal ailments can occur as a result of the challenges that we face in life and past experiences. However, this advent, it's important to remember that whatever the cause of our ailments, we can always bring them to Jesus with faith and humility and ask Him to heal us, as this is a part of His saving mission. When we experience Jesus' healing, we are given the strength and courage to experience a rich spiritual life. An important aspect of the rich spiritual life is rejoicing in God's healing, saving power that He brings to our lives. So next time, we experience spiritual ailments, let us bring these to God, trust in His power to heal, and embrace the graces that He gives us. The graces God gives us may include insight into how to say and act with wisdom, patience and kindness, or being like Christ in the way we perceive and treat others.

Prayer: Dear Jesus, you have revealed your salvific grace and mission to all people. You bring hope and joy to all people, particularly the weak, frightened and vulnerable. May we always remember your healing power and grace and turn to you in times of weakness, in challenging and difficult times. May we always invite you into our lives so we can be strengthened and emboldened to experience joyous, spiritual encounters with you every day. Amen.
